

Fourth Amendment to Security Services Agreement
Port of Tacoma & SSA TERMINALS (TACOMA), LLC

This Fourth Amendment to a Security Services Agreement is entered into this ____ day of _____, 2018 by and between the Port of Tacoma, a port district organized and operating under the laws of the State of Washington (hereinafter ("Port") and SSA TERMINALS (TACOMA), LLC., a Delaware corporation registered and doing business in Washington, (hereinafter "SSA") (collectively "Parties") and amends that certain Agreement dated October 19, 2017 ("Original SSA Security Agreement"), that certain First Amendment to Security Agreement dated April 23, 2018, that certain Second Amendment to Security Agreement dated June 27, 2018, and that certain Third Amendment to Security Agreement dated July 3, 2018.

1. In the Original SSA Security Agreement, the Port and SSA agreed that SSA shall assume all obligations responsibilities, rights and duties of APM Terminals Pacific Ltd., a California corporation registered and doing business in Washington (APM) which were set forth in that certain Security Agreement by which APM agreed to obtain Terminal Security Officers ("TSOs") security services from the Port and the Port agreed to provide security services to APM pursuant to that certain Security Services Agreement dated October 30, 2009, and as amended in December 2011, November 2013, and April 22, 2016 ("Security Agreement"), provided however the Port and SSA further agreed (1) to modified the terms of the Security Agreement, as set forth in Paragraphs 4, 5, 6 and 7 of the Original SSA Security Agreement, and (2) that the termination date of the Security Agreement, as amended, shall be extended through April 30, 2018.
2. The Parties' First and Second Amendments extended the termination date of the Agreement only.
3. By this Fourth Amendment, the Parties hereby mutually agree to extend the termination date of the Original SSA Security Agreement and First Amendment to Security Agreement, as amended, to December 31, 2018.
4. All other terms and conditions of the Original SSA Security Agreement and First Amendment to Security Agreement as amended, remain in full force and effect.
