

POWER PADDLE TO PUYALLUP

Canoe Journey 2018

What is Canoe Journey?

It is an annual Native American traditional canoe gathering that takes place along the west coast of Washington & Canada.

Beginning of Canoe Journey

In 1989 Emmett Oliver revitalized the centuries old tradition of canoeing by organizing the “Paddle to Seattle” as part of Washington States centennial ceremony. His dedication of launching this revival of tradition now continues more than a quarter century later as is now known as Canoe Journey.

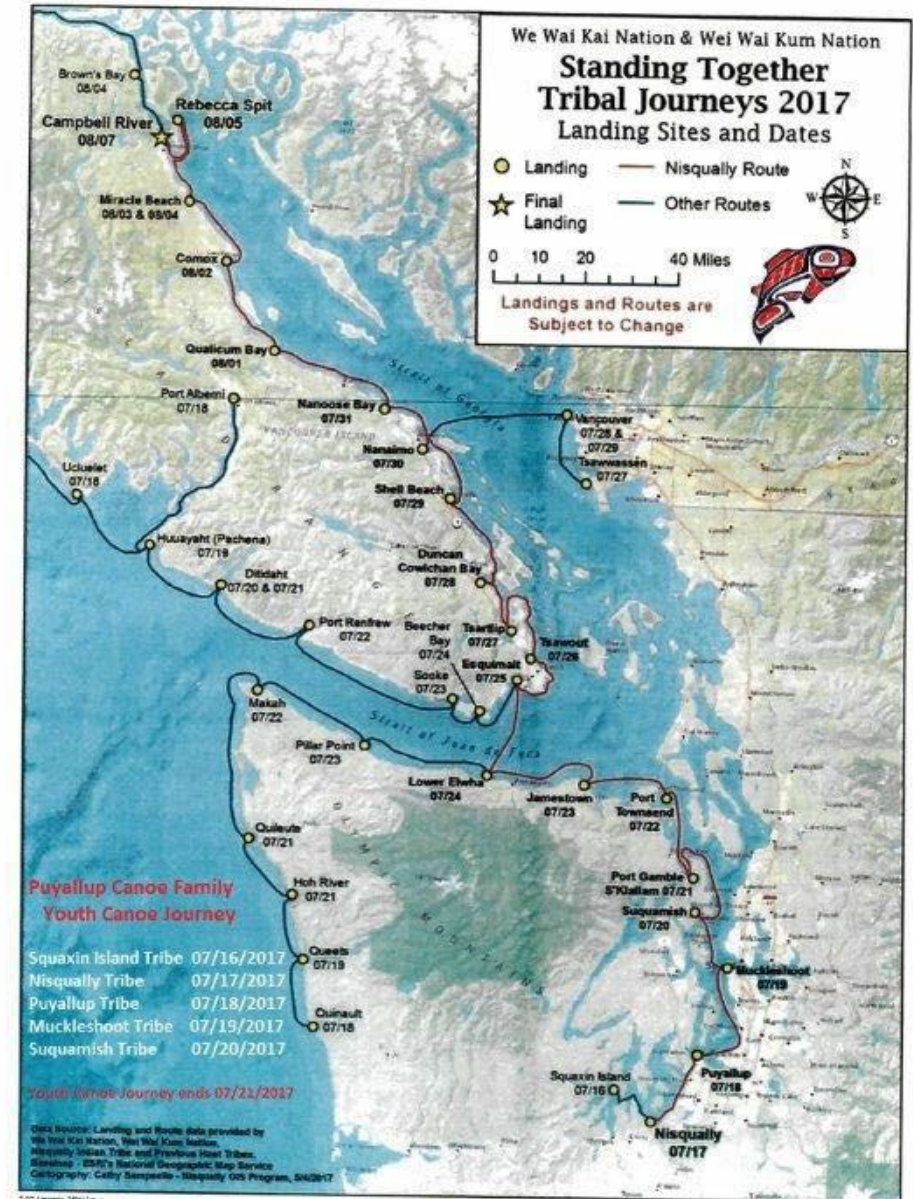

Tribes up and down the west coast come together each year to celebrate this event.

Stops

At each point in the map is a stop in which the tribe or band will host the canoe journey for 1-2 days.

During that time they will provide food, camping, and protocol or jam sessions.

Landing

At each landing there is a protocol that is followed.

The landing canoe will introduce themselves and request to come ashore.

Then the host tribe will welcome them.

Protocol

What we are expecting
2017 Campbell River hosted 87 canoe families.

In 2018 we are planning to host over 100 canoes.
