EXHIBIT A

2022 Amended and Restated

Port of Tacoma Commission Bylaws

Article I. PREAMBLE

The Port Commission is the legally constituted governing body of the Port of Tacoma (“Port”). As a governing body of a special purpose public port district, it is charged with the responsibility of fulfilling legislatively mandated purposes and objectives.

These Bylaws shall constitute the rules governing the transaction of business by the duly elected Port Commission (“Commission”). Commissioners shall faithfully perform all duties of their office. Commissioners shall abide by the principle that “public service is a public trust.” Commissioners shall uphold the integrity, impartiality and independence of the Commission and shall encourage and promote accountability, transparency, and public confidence by their actions.

Commissioners shall safeguard the Port of Tacoma as a public agency whose primary mission shall be to invest public resources to advance trade and commerce, promote industrial growth, stimulate economic development, and create jobs. The Port of Tacoma makes strategic investments in our harbor and community to promote prosperity, trade, and jobs, while protecting and enhancing our environment.

Article II. COMMISSION DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. In addition to the duties and responsibilities authorized by state law, in executing its responsibilities, the Commission shall:
  - A. Establish broad policies, overall direction, and long-term objectives of the Port, as established in the Port’s Strategic Business Plan.
  - B. Select an Executive Director to implement Port policies and objectives and to administer and operate the Port based on the delegation of administrative responsibility and authority as adopted in the Master Policy, Delegation of Authority Resolution No. 2022-06-PT as it now exists and as it may be amended or superseded from time to time. The Commission shall set the salary level, undertake an annual performance review, and review the compensation of the Executive Director in public session. The Port Commissioners shall have discretion in determining the compensation of the Executive Director. The Commission and the Executive Director shall agree on the Executive Director’s Goals and Objectives on an annual basis and shall approve same in public session.
  - C. Approve the annual budget of the Port of Tacoma and set the amount of the annual tax levy by December 1 of each calendar year, pursuant to RCW 53.35.045.
  - D. Reserve to itself if, how, and the degree to which the Port will use the governmental powers of taxation and eminent domain.

- E. Establish financial policies, including capital formation and debt issuance.
  - F. Determine the types of business activity in which the Port will engage.
  - G. Identify short- and long-term business strategies for enhancement of maritime and manufacturing/industrial/technological-related business as well as other activities in which the Port might engage.
  - H. Approve labor agreements.
  - I. Establish Port positions on significant governmental legislation.
  - J. Approve the annual Master Benefits and Salary Resolution. Delegate personnel administration to the Executive Director.
  - K. Approve the Audit Committee Charter and amendments thereto.
  - L. Issue Proclamations as a Commission, issue communications expressing support, policy positions, recognitions, and public comment on issues affecting the Port, provided however, any communication to a governmental entity or leader or which takes a policy position on behalf of the Port not previously publicly endorsed by the Commission shall be circulated in advance to each Commissioner with sufficient time for review; acknowledging that review time may be short, dependent upon circumstance. Absent any timely objections by Commissioners, the communication will be sent.
  - M. Commit to Commission Board member transparency, whereby substantive information provided by Port staff to any one Commissioner, is shared with all Commissioners; with the exception of de minimis communications and information provided to Commissioners as part of their service on a Commission-established Committee; however, these Committee materials will be provided to any Commissioner upon request.
  - N. Commission international travel shall be approved in advance by vote of the Commission in public session. The Commission shall strive to allocate travel opportunities equally amongst its members.
2. Any Commissioners desiring to have any issue, project, commitment of resources, or other matter considered shall secure the support of at least one other Port Commissioner and may have such item placed on the agenda of the Commission meeting following submission of the item to the President of the Commission. The deadline for submission of the proposed agenda item should if possible be not less than two weeks prior to the date of the meeting for which the agenda item is proposed to be added.
  3. The President of the Commission in conjunction with the Executive Director shall be responsible for developing the agenda for Port Commission meetings. The Executive Director will present agenda topics developed by Port staff or in response to prior Commission direction. The President will present agenda items based on input from individual Commission members solicited by the President.
  4. A quorum of Commissioners may add, strike, and/or reinstate items to any regular meeting agenda, by vote taken in public session prior to the public vote to approve that meeting's

Agenda. Commissioners should exercise restraint when adding agenda items in order to maintain public notice and comment opportunities.

5. The President of the Commission shall be the spokesperson for the Commission in expressing a view held jointly by the Port Commission unless another spokesperson shall be delegated. However, individual Commissioners shall have the right to voice personal opinions differing from decisions taken or under review by the Port Commission as a whole as long as they are stated as such.

Article III. COMMISSION ORGANIZATION

1. The Commission shall elect new officers annually as follows: (1) in any year in which there are no Commission elections, new officers shall be elected at the last meeting of the calendar year; and (2) in any calendar year in which there are Commission elections, the Commission will develop a proposed slate of Commission officers at the last meeting of the calendar year and elect new officers at the first meeting of the following calendar year. An officer's term shall run for one (1) year beginning when elected, or until a successor is elected. However, whenever vacancies arise, they may be filled at any regular or special meeting of the Commission.
2. The Commission shall elect a President and a Secretary from its own members. Additionally, a Vice President and Assistant Secretary (or Assistant Secretaries) may be elected. The Commission shall rotate officer positions annually, to promote shared leadership opportunities and for orderly succession planning. During the temporary absence of any Commission officer, the officer next in line shall temporarily assume the duties of the absent officer in an acting capacity during the absence and in the following order: President, Vice President, Secretary, 1st Assistant Secretary, and 2nd Assistant Secretary. If a Commissioner's absence is lengthy or due to disability or the inability to serve, the Commission may appoint the officer next in line to the position held by the absent officer.
3. The Commission shall strive to hold an annual retreat during the first quarter of each year to review, identify, and discuss Commission priorities with the Executive Director.
4. The Commission will review and discuss the proposed assignment of Commissioners to outside Boards and Committees and assignments to the Commission's Standing Committees during the last meeting of the calendar year. The Commission will approve Board and Committee assignments at the first meeting of the following calendar year. In the event of shared interest on Committee/Board assignments, the President shall decide.
5. The Commission will conduct an annual review of these Bylaws with the assistance of Port Legal Counsel.
6. All proceedings shall be by motion or resolution. A record of the proceedings shall be recorded in the minutes.
7. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Port Commissioner, such vacancy shall be filled pursuant to RCW 53.12.140 at the next general election, and pursuant to RCW 42.12.070 in the interim.

8. The Commission may, from time to time, establish such Standing Committees as are necessary to conduct specialized work. A Standing Committee is defined as a Commission Committee that meets regularly and has on-going business, as opposed to Committees with short-termed purposes. A Standing Committee Charter, if one is established, should address items such as scope of mission and authority, membership, meeting protocols and duration, and shall be approved by the Commission. The membership of Standing Committees shall be proposed by the President, subject to Commission approval. In general, a Commissioner shall not expect to serve more than two consecutive years on a Standing Committee, but tenure is at the discretion of the Commission. To remain in compliance with the Open Public Meetings Act (Chap. 42.30 RCW), Standing Committees shall not be comprised of more than two members of the Commission, as three or more members constitute a quorum of the Commission. The Commission may form temporary committees whose mandate shall be defined in the motion creating the temporary committee. Temporary committees formed to report findings or make recommendations to the full Commission, which do not conduct hearings or take testimony or public comment are not required to meet in public session.
9. Commissioners may serve on Port-related outside boards. This section applies to those outside boards, to which the Port Commission routinely assigns a Commissioner representative; this section does not apply to outside boards where a Commissioner is appointed by other officials/entities (Example: Gubernatorial appointment), or a Commissioner independently chooses to join the outside board. The Commission shall collaboratively assign Port-related board memberships for all Commissioners and will approve Board assignments in conjunction with Committee assignments as provided for in paragraph 4 above. In general, a Commissioner shall not expect to serve on the same outside board for more than four consecutive years. One factor influencing whether service on an outside board should be extended is whether such an extension would allow the Commissioner to hold an officer position on the board. Commissioners who serve as members on outside boards shall avoid conflicts of interest. If such conflicts arise before those outside Boards, Commissioners shall recuse themselves from any consideration and voting upon the issue before the outside board that creates the conflict.

Article IV. OFFICER DUTIES

1. The President shall preside at all public meetings of the Commission and at executive sessions of the Commission, and shall sign all resolutions, contracts, official correspondence, and other instruments on behalf of the Commission as authorized by the Commission. The President shall perform all such other duties that are incident to the office or are properly required by the Commission. The President shall authorize the issuance of notices for regular and special meetings of the Commission as provided in ARTICLE V of these Bylaws. In addition, any one Commissioner may call for a future special meeting, during a regular or special meeting, which shall be scheduled and held upon approval by a quorum of the Commission.

and resolutions adopted by the Commission, and shall supervise the filing of the approved minutes, and shall otherwise perform such further duties as are incident to the office and as are properly required by the Commission.

4. The Assistant Secretary shall, during the absence or disability of the Secretary, exercise all the functions of the Secretary.
5. Any Commissioner who shall be elected to act for an incumbent elected officer during the temporary absence or disability of such officer shall exercise all the functions of the incumbent officer, but only during the continuance of the absence or disability of such officer.

  - F. The presiding officer at all meetings of the Commission shall be the President, and in his/her/their absence, the Vice President and in his/her/their absence, the Secretary, if a quorum is present.
8. Any member of the Commission, including the presiding officer, shall have the right to question any individual, including members of the staff, on matters germane to the issue properly before the Commission for discussion.
9. Officer Removal/Replacement: Any Commission Officer may be removed from their Board Officer position and replaced by another Commissioner upon public vote by the Commission; provided however, these actions require at least four affirmative votes to pass.

Article V. COMMISSION MEETINGS

1. Regular Meetings: No additional notice shall be required for regular meetings; the time and place of which are established by these Bylaws or state law. Beginning on January 1, 2023, regular meetings of the Commission shall be held at noon on the third Tuesday of each month and at noon on the first Thursday of February, May, September, and November. In the event an executive session under RCW 42.30.110 is to be held, the regular meeting may convene at 10:00 am, immediately recess to an executive session, which shall be closed to the public, after which the public session shall reconvene at noon. Such notice must be delivered personally or by electronic mail at least twenty-four (24) hours before the time of such meeting, as specified in the notice. The call and notice shall specify the time and place of the special meeting and all business to be transacted. Such notice shall also be posted on the Port's website at least twenty-four (24) hours before the meeting. Final disposition shall not be taken on any other matter at such meeting by the Commission. Such written notice may be dispensed with as to any member who, at or prior to the time the meeting convenes, files with the Secretary of the Commission a written waiver of notice. Such waiver may be given by regular or electronic mail or facsimile transmittal. Such written or electronic notice or facsimile transmittal may also be dispensed with as to any member who is actually present at the meeting at the time it convenes. The notices provided in this section may be dispensed with in the event a special meeting is called to deal with an emergency involving injury or damage to persons or property or the likelihood of such injury or damage, when time requirements of such a notice would make notice impractical and increase the likelihood of such injury or damage or when a special Meeting has been approved by vote of a majority of the Commissioners as provided in ARTICLE IV, Section 1, herein.
3. Open Meetings: All meetings shall be open and public except as otherwise provided by these Bylaws or state law.
4. Place of Meetings: The regular meetings of the Port Commission shall be held in the primary location of Room 104, at the Fabulich Center, 3600 Port of Tacoma Road, Tacoma, WA except:
  - A. If the meeting date falls on a legal holiday, or on the day before Christmas or New Year's,

7. Announcement of Executive Sessions: Before convening an executive session, the President shall publicly announce the purpose for the executive session, the applicable statutory exception which applies to that meeting purpose, the time when the executive session will end, and whether or not action is anticipated to be taken following the executive session. 13. Remote Meetings and Attendance: A Commission member who is physically absent may attend and participate in Commission meetings remotely via audio or video conference or equivalent technological means, provided that he/she/they has the ability to listen to or view the proceedings, and that the Port Commission and the public have the ability to listen to or see the remotely attending Commissioner. This provision is specifically intended to facilitate attendance of Commissioners who are not available to participate in person or to accommodate a Commissioner who may be traveling. Commissioners planning to participate remotely will provide the Commission Executive Assistant and Port Executive Director with at least five (5) days' notice in order to ensure adequate technological support is available. This requirement for notice shall be waived if remote attendance is required due to illness or other personal emergency. The Commission may hold a fully remote meeting without a physical location or a meeting at which the physical attendance by some or all members of the public is limited due to a declared emergency as provided for in RCW 42.30.070. Unless a fully remote meeting is being held under this emergency provision, at least one Commissioner must be physically present to preside over the meeting when other Commissioners are participating remotely by audio or video conference or equivalent technological means. Port Commissioners participating remotely by audio or video conference or equivalent technological means, may vote upon a matter, provided they have been present remotely through an audio or video conference or equivalent technological means for the entire presentation and discussion of the particular agenda item that is being voted upon.
14. Absences: Any absence by a Commissioner from a meeting because of attendance at other Port business shall be so recorded in the minutes of the meeting. A vacancy in the office of Port Commissioner shall occur as provided in RCW 53.12.140 by nonattendance of a Commissioner at Port Commission meetings for a period of sixty days unless excused by the Port Commission.
